Never Let You Down

Grey and Hanks

I'm you, you're me
You can't run from a lack of mystery
Please just go away
I'm right, you're wrong
You can't hide in a place you don't belong
Please just go away
And I'll never let you
Never let you down
I'm through, you're free
It's head first in the lap of luxury
Please just go away
Alright, you're dead wrong
You can't run, you can't drag me along
Please just go away
And I'll never let you
Never let you down
Fine you're gone away, tell me one more day
I know you're gonna stay, you ask if there's a way
I'm you, you're me
You can't run, you can't stay pissed at me
Please don't go away
And I'll never let you
Never let you down
