

Born to Be Loved

Lucinda Williams

You weren't born to be abandoned
And you weren't born to be forsaken
You were born to be loved
You were born to be loved You weren't born to be mistreated
And you weren't born to be misguided
You were born to be loved
You were born to be loved You weren't born to be a slave
And you weren't born to be disgraced
You were born to be loved
Mmm, hmm, you were born to be loved You weren't born to be abused
And you weren't born to lose
You were born to be loved
You were born to be loved
