

48 Hours Till Monday

Sawyer Brown

It's friday night and I've been workin' all week long
After the rent all I have left is this old song
My baby's right beside me, we're gonna have a ball
Ain't gonna care about anything, anything at allI've got 48 hours and 25 dollars in change 'til Monday
Got on my skin tight jeans
And my shirt with the ketchup stainsI've got a hole in my pocket and the world by the tail
And everything is going my way
I've got 48 hours and 25 dollars in changeWe'll get a double dip down at the Tasty Freeze
Listen to the gossip, laugh till we can't breath
We'll join the cavalcade of down home on parade
Here in our town, U.S.A, we really got it madeI've got 48 hours and 25 dollars in change 'til Monday
Got on my skin tight jeans
And my shirt with the ketchup stainsI've got a hole in my pocket and the world by the tail
And everything is going my way
I've got 48 hours and 25 dollars in changeI've got a hole in my pocket and the world by the tail
And everything is going my way
I've got 48 hours and 25 dollars in changeI've got 48 hours and 25 dollars in change
I've got 48 hours and 25 dollars in change
I've got 48 hours and 25 dollars in change
