

Fuyu No Kage Ha Kanashimi

Lamp

"In the sunlight through the trees,
Smiles the shadow that invites me.
Getting wet with the wind
And your dazzling look.
Certainly, I was just looking at me.
As the snow melted under the sun
The sight of your figure goes like a white illusion.
The emptiness that it gives your face cannot be comforted.
You will not come back here again You will not come back to me.
You are no longer in me and you will not be here anymore.
So farewell..."
