

1st & 10 (No Fuego)

No Fuego

Breathing. Got strength back in my knees.

Believing that this is not the end...this is not the end.

I'm seeing things so clear and there's no turning back now, not this time.

My cell has opened along with my eyes and i'm back where i belong. These seconds that we have fly by and we're the ones to blame, though we try to make it right.

So you watch as we decay, we'll try to win the fight to start another day.

No time to waste on yesterdays.

We raise our bottles for today, surrendering to what we love!

Though we don't forget that sinking ship,

Here and now, we're breakin' out.
