Wild Men

CLMD

(feat. Sirena)

Made a deal,
Wash my hands from all of the sins
The psychotic purple out in Berlin
Woke up stoned and drunk to my bones
The psychotic purple out in Berlin
The psychotic purple out in Berlin
While the wild men are burning houses down,
To the ground

Part of me have always thought silly and foolish,
And I'll let it drop right into the air
Mama dear I could tell I was bullied,
but I starred it out and buried in vain
Mama dear I could tell I was bullied,
but I starred it out and buried in vain
While the wild men are burning houses down,
To the ground

Mama dear, while to me I was a fool
Let it drop right into the air,
Part of me thought I was a fool
But instead I starred it out and buried in vain,
Starred it out and buried in vain
Starred it out and buried in vain
While the wild men are burning houses down,
To the ground

While the wild men are burning houses down, to the ground
While the wild men are burning houses down, to the ground
While the wild men are burning houses down, to the ground
While the wild men are burning houses down, to the ground
While the wild men are burning houses down, to the ground
While the wild men are burning houses down, to the ground
While the wild men are burning houses down, to the ground
While the wild men are burning houses down, to the ground
