Jesus Is

Hillsong London

Speak a little softer so I can hear you
Above the noise, the noise, the noise in this world, yeah
You don't have to shout it for hearts to listen
Just be a still, small voice, and let the truth be heardThat Jesus is
The way, the truth he is the light
For me, for you, for the world tonight
Our hope, the meaning of this life
Jesus is, Jesus is
Jesus is, Jesus isEverybody's looking, but how will they find it
The road to happiness unless they're told
That love is the answer to the ultimate question
But how will they understand unless they knowThat Jesus is
The way, the truth he is the light
For me, for you, for the world tonight
Our hope, the meaning of this life
Jesus is, Jesus is
Jesus is, Jesus isThat Jesus is
The way, the truth he is the light
For me, for you, for the world tonight
Our hope, the meaning of this life
Jesus is, Jesus is
Jesus is, Jesus is
