

Do It All

Tyga

Lookin at the ceiling thinking why I treat you bad.
Ain't no worse of feeling than knowing I did it for the last arguing.
All I was doin accusing you , ma bad.
Said let's take some time, nevermind. Rewind...Lookin at the ceiling thinking why I treat you bad.
Ain't no worse of feeling than knowing I did it for the last arguing.
All I was doin accusing you , ma bad.
Said let's take some time, nevermind. Jus playin wit ya mind. I always thought play dumb and and let the other one love
Why
Get caught up in a web of trust
Only love for fun, I'm too young I thought.
All I wanted was a thanks for the Louis times I bought.
But it ain't ya fault, heaven knoes you deserve it all.
You sent letters to ma heart , but I burned em all.
The bible says: before you run, gotta learn to crawl.
