Like Rain

Nils Lofgren

Saw you last morning, cried my sins out.
You were rain and I washed away.
Meet the kind of friends that always end
And I laugh when I start to say...Love you like rain darlin',
Always falling, just to pass my way.Wander like clouds when it comes to lovin'.
Lonely hearts sure ain't nothing new.
I was told by a wise man in my soul
She's gonna always stop loving you.I love her in the morning.
She leaves me in the evening.
I need her too.She's got a hold on me.
Don't think she's ever gonna let me be.
I'm crying in the morning light,
It'd be better if it weren't so damn right.
And it rains.Got to run now, clouds are rolling.
'Fraid it's gonna start to rain.
When I fall sleeping I dream of good things
But I always wake up the same.God, I love you like rain darling,
Always falling, just to pass my way.I meet the kind of friends that always end.
I meet the kind of friends that always end.
I meet the kind of friends that always end.
I meet the kind of friends that always end.
And I laugh when I start to say...
