Nirvana

Boris Potskov

Nirvana full lyric....

I'm sitting and I'm watching
Deep inside of me
All the pictures are arround me
I can touch the sky
I'm sinking in the lake
Tell me what I am?
I am flying through the dreams
Like an angel covered with veil
All my senses are sharpen
I can feel the pulse of the time
All my senses are sharpen
I can see the light in my soul
All my senses are sharpen
And I smell the flower of love
Wherever it's hiding I can touch it through my mind
All my sorrow dissapears
When I see the light
I can feel you I can hear you
In the ocean's high
