Fallen

Jason Derulo

You are the one who makes it worth waking up in the morning
I'd trade the sun for the chance to show you I'm all in
We could be like Jay and Beyonce, Bonnie and Clyde
Just like the movie, take that chance on love, yeah, yeah
Now I can't predict what the future holds
But I'll fight forever to keep you close, yeah
I'd give it all up, baby
Trade in the world to show I'm falling, I'm falling, yeah
Don't need the fame or money
Long as I got you, girl, I'm falling, I'm falling
Tell all them other girls I've fallen
Put me to the test, I'll prove to you I'll never be a heartache
'Cause you're the best, you deserve the best
Rule this world like Michelle and Barack, be my girl
We'll end up on top, take that chance on love, yeah, yeah, yeah
Now I can't predict what the future holds
But I'll fight forever to keep you close, yeah
I'd give it all up, baby
Trade in the world to show I'm falling, I'm falling, yeah

Don't need the fame or money
Long as I got you, girl, I'm falling, I'm falling
Tell all them other girls I've fallen
Oh, I want the world to see
So I bring you like some jewelry
To show you that I'm not ashamed
I'm falling, falling, yeah
I'm telling all them other girls
And everybody round the world
I told you, girl, I'm not ashamed
I'm falling, falling, yeah, yeah
I'd give it all up, baby
Trade in the world to show I'm falling, I'm falling, yeah
I'd give it all up, baby
Trade in the world to show I'm falling, I'm falling, yeah
Don't need the fame or money
Long as I got you, girl, I'm falling, I'm falling
Tell all them other girls
Tell all them other girls, I've fallen
