

Morning Sadness

Madina Lake

I've cut my eye's on vision's of you.
Memories of glee.
I lost touch with the boy i knew, while you were still here.
Have you met your God?
does he know I'm in pain?
Does he have any plans..... for me to see you again?
Morning sadness here we meet again.
Pack your bag's because we are leaving tonight.
Damage done by a lost love'd one.
You can't ever forget.
questioning my faith in God?
i know evil exists.
I look past the sky, that's where we are going tonight.
