

Mother Of Lies

JD McPherson

Don't tell another story
'cause I know you're the Mother of Lies Can't catch the moon no matter how you try
when you're standing in the middle of the broad daylight Don't check me for a fever
'cause I know you don't saw no bones
Can't catch the moon no matter how you try
when you're standing in the middle of the broad daylight
Don't buy me no presents
'cause I know you ain't Santa Claus Can't catch the moon no matter how you try
when you're standing in the middle of the broad daylight
