

Ride On the Train

Hollis Brown

Left New York playing clubs in the U.S.A, she didn't even ask if I would stay. I called Chloe and I listened to "Havanna Moon." She was lookin' for a prince to be her groom. Ride on the train, and baby don't look back. Ah! The sun in the south never felt so good. Sweet Savanah I did everything that I could. All I ever really wanted was a second try, in the clouds of Ohio we said goodbye. Ride on the train, and baby don't look back. Left New York playing clubs and I don't know why. Under skies of Ohio we said goodbye. Tryin' to make it in this rock-n-roll enterprise. In the streets of the ghetto she told me lies. Ride on the train, and baby don't look back.
