Fate touched my life
Led you my way --
Within a heartbeat
I was caught by your lightThe surface shivered
Unveiled so unexpected beauty
True and fateful brightYou are the thought that covers me tonight
Beautiful soul -- sacred ways of life
Unfold my wings -- reach out for your light
To shelter you from pain tonightA flare in time
Gathered our souls
As they touched gently
Sacred ways of fateLove entered my life
So unexpected though so welcome
Living in your eyesAnd though I know my fight begins
My soul's melting withinYou are the thought that covers me tonight
Beautiful soul -- sacred ways of life
Unfold my wings -- reach out for your light
My heart it breaks for you tonightMy heart steady beats for you (eternal on, eternal on)
No despairing darkness can blind my sight
Show me your colours -- my ray of light...
I'm burning bright -- alive!You are the thought that covers me tonight
Beautiful soul -- sacred ways of life
Unfold my wings -- reach out for your light
Never forsake -- it's once in a life...
