

Still Holding On (feat. Aruna)

Conjure One

You can raise your walls, lock me out
I won't change and turn around
Till my world unwind
I'll be holding on to love

You can load your guns, raise your sword
I'll be waiting right here
Till the end of time, I'll be holding on to love
Still holding on to love

You can raise your walls, lock me out
I won't change and turn around
Till my world unwind
I'll be holding on to love

You can load your guns, raise your sword
I'll be waiting right here
Till the end of time, I'll be holding on to love
Still holding on to love

Faded to grey, you're lost and frail
But I'm still waiting
There's a hole in my heart for you

But I'm strong, I'm carrying weight
If part of me breaks, I'm not giving up
There's a hole in my heart for you

There's nothing left
There's nothing left here to do
Burn up the sky, I'm here to you

You can raise your walls, lock me out
I won't change and turn around
Till my world unwind
I'll be holding on to love

You can load your guns, raise your sword
I'll be waiting right here
Till the end of time, I'll be holding on to love

Still holding on to love
