Lacy

Athenaeum

Lacy found the feather
She's gonna throw it in the wind
She pulls upon a sweater
To keep the one that's inThere aint no reason why, but I know shell never lie Lacy found the feather baby, she's gonna blow it to the skyAnd when the morning comes, her body will be numb
And lacy's past will fly, and she said
"I don't wanna go, here i feel i'm losing all control"Lacy found the feather lying in the sand she kneeled to pick it up and something grabbed her handThere ain't no reason why, but i know shell never lie Lacy found the feather baby, she knows its gonna die.And when the morning comes, her body will be numb
and lacy's past will fly, and she said
"i dont wanna go, here i feel i'm losing all control no, i don't wanna go, baby, why don't we lose all control?"And in the end we'll see how happy we could be if we could risk it all.
can we risk it all?
yeah
can we risk it all?
yeah
