

From Inside

Pandorum

I'm so like you
I fear myself
And close the thought of wondering
So sick of the fight
Of trying what's right
We've shattered the glass
We're waking the dead
And chased the voices in our heads
With blood on our hands
We say goodbye til again

But today
I'm exactly where I feel
Where the walls aren't caving in
I believe it when I say
The worst is over
I lay in the comfort of your arms
Where I'm stopped from doing harm
I believe it when I say
The hurt is over

I'm so like you
I can't repair
Back and forth
So save your breath
My mind's made up
I've had enough
So goodbye once again
I'll say it's the end
Until my voice is free again
This time I will fight
This time I will fight

But today
You are not a part of me
Tried to be your everything
I wanna believe it when you say
The worst is over
And now it's too late

We have done this for too long
I try to believe it when you say
The hurt is over

So go ahead this makes no sense
I'm coming back so don't give in
It's too late now I'm letting go
I don't believe you anymore
I'm letting go
I don't believe
I'm letting go
I don't believe
I'm letting go
I don't believe
I'm letting go
I don't believe
