Left Alone

Blacklisted

Times ain't easy, we find ways to get out
What the fuck is this really about?
I got some thoughts but with them comes doubt
I got nowhere to turn
In the end there's a lesson learned
So I walk
So I walk
So I walk alone
No clue where I'm going
Or where this may go
I'll wind up all alone
With only scars to show
So I walk
So I walk
So I walk alone
Don't know what I want
Don't know how to get it
All I know is in time
I'll live to regret it
I'll live to regret it
