Love Myself

Asia Cruise

Thought that you could hold me down
Thought I'll always be around
But I'm no body's doormat
I don't gotta lay back,
Let you take advantage of Everything that I stand for Everything that I love
How long will it take before you realize
No matter how you try
You'll never get the best of me
You thought I was broken but I was still hoping
You'll never get the best of me
And my heart was broken but now it's all over
I'm bigger and I'm better of a person than the one you used to know before.
Hey, (you see)
I'm bigger and I'm better of a person than the one you used to know before
All because
I found someone to believe in
I don't need no convincing
If I don't love myself the way no body else will.
All I needed was time to heal
All the pain I felt was so real
Now I'm gonna love myself the way no body else will.

It's not easy to forgive
When everything's so hard to forget
All my struggles in the past
People said I wouldn't last
But I'm still standing here
In my heart I'm truly grateful
Cause all the drama only made me stronger
I'm glad I realize no matter how you try
You'll never get the best of me
You thought I was broken but I was still hoping
You'll never get the best of me
And my heart was broken but now it's all over
I'm bigger and I'm better of a person than the one you used to know before.
Yeah...
I'm bigger and I'm better of a person than the one you used to know before

(All because
I found someone to believe in
I don't need no convincing
If I don't love myself
The way no body else will.
All I needed was time to heal
All the pain I felt was so real
Now I'm gonna love myself the way no body else will.) [x2]
