Syleena Johnson

I met him on a Sunday
Ooh, it was first day of the rest of my life
Haven't been the same, since you called my name
Everything has changedMade me bloom just like a flower
Since the first time we took a shower
Made love for hours
And I could feel the power of your loveGirl, I'll be true to thee
As long as your loving me
Giving you the best of me
Loving you is my destiny
I always put you firstYou do and I'll never walk away
'Cause you give me more than anything
And in my heart you'll always have a place
Baby boy, I'm here to stay 'cause I am your womanYou're more than you think
More than a diamond ring with a stone in pink
[Incomprehensible]
You mean more than those thingsMore than the air I breathe
More than the food I eat
More than the shoes on my feet
Oh, you are more than to meThe moment that I saw you
Knew I was crazy for you
The look in your eyes
Said those things, many things to meGirl, join this walk with me
Believe me when I say, I'm with you for life
Right by your side, make you my wifeGirl, I'll be true to thee
As long as your loving me
Giving you the best of me
loving you is my destiny
I always put you firstYou do and I'll never walk away
'Cause you give me more than anything
And in my heart you'll always have a place
Baby boy, I'm here to stay 'cause I am your womanYou're more than you think
More than a diamond ring with a stone in pink
[Incomprehensible]
You mean more than those thingsMore than the air I breathe
More than the food I eat
More than the shoes on my feet
Oh, you are more than to meYou're more than you think
More than a diamond ring with a stone in pink

[Incomprehensible]
You mean more than those thingsMore than the air I breathe
More than the food I eat
More than the shoes on my feet
Oh, you are more than to meYou're my autumn when the seasons change
And falling in love, can't wait to change to rain
Boy, you're like the sun rays
Shining down on a special dayLike sand to a beach, the sweet to a peach
You make my heart beat
Change me from Miss to Mrs.
Granted all my wishes, you're moreYou're more than you think
More than a diamond ring with a stone in pink
[Incomprehensible]
You mean more than those thingsMore than the air I breathe
More than the food I eat
More than the shoes on my feet
Baby, more than to meMore than you think
More than a diamond ring with a stone in pink
[Incomprehensible]
You mean more than those thingsMore than a friend becomes a lover
Here to the end don't want no other
Through thick and thin we've got each other
More than anythingI ask for or or pray for, you are my
