Skewered From Ear To Eye

Cannibal Corpse

Sharpen the pick
To pierce the skull through the ear
Stab at an angle
Cranial transfixion, hearing and vision
Terminated by the penetrationSkewered from ear to eye
Lancing the boil of your mind
Deafened by the piercing thrust
Exit wound has left you blindSkewered from ear to eye
Bisection of the brain by steel
Final thoughts will dissipate
Unable to perceive what is realStruggle with death
In shock you grasp at the air
Senses deprived
Cerebral cessation, mental division
Created by this perforationSkewered from ear to eye
Lancing the boil of your mind
Deafened by the piercing thrust
Exit wound has left you blindSkewered from ear to eye
Bisection of the brain by steel
Final thoughts will dissipate
Unable to perceive what is realBoring through the brain, eye impaled upon the point
Steel spears crisscross your gray matter
Puncturing the eardrum and the blood begins to ooze
Red blooms grace the dying headAuditory nerve is severed
Labyrinth destroyed
You are rendered deaf and blind
Seconds before deathOn a spit your head will burn
Charring flesh, brain tissue congeals
Crack the skull, open wide
Scoop it out, I consume your mindEating the brain
To gain the knowledge of death
You are inside
Psychic absorption, hearing and vision
Are now mine through this appropriationSkewered from ear to eye
Lancing the boil of your mind
Deafened by the piercing thrust
Exit wound has left you blindSkewered from ear to eye
Bisection of the brain by steel
Final thoughts will dissipate

Unable to perceive what is real
