Bite Down

Molitor

I could call any girl in my phone right now, have a pillow in her mouth watch her bite downYou open up your wrists like a fish
I wanna piece you back together
Don't worry soon we'll be rich
And we can move to sunny weatherJust flick on the red light, Scorcese
I want you to feel right, my lady
Lift off is in sight, my baby
Damn, this sh so tight; that's crazyTonight I wanna feel you in my bones
Tomorrow you'll be waking up alone
Make me feel like a man; Make me feel like a man
Tonight I wanna feel you in my bones
Tomorrow you'll be waking up alone
Make me feel like a man, oh
And Bite DownBite Down (x8)Take me to the place you go
Whenever you're alone
Through the walls they always hear you
& beating hearts have always feared youScreaming at the top of your lungs
Scratching at every surface
Biting right through your restless tongue
Just so that your life will hurt lessTonight I wanna feel you in my bones
Tomorrow you'll be waking up alone
Make me feel like a man; Make me feel like a man
Tonight I wanna feel you in my bones
Tomorrow you'll be waking up alone
Make me feel like a man, oh
And Bite DownBite Down (x8)Bite down on the pillow; Just go with the rhythm
Bite down on the pillow; Just go with the rhythm
Bite down on the pillow with the rhythm (ah, ah, ah)
Bite down on the pillow with the rhythm (ah, ah, ah)Tonight I wanna feel you in my bones
Tomorrow you'll be waking up alone
Make me feel like a man; Make me feel like a man
Tonight I wanna feel you in my bones
Tomorrow you'll be waking up alone
Make me feel like a man, oh
And Bite DownBite Down (x8)Bite Down
