

Teardrops on My Pillow

Dum Dum Girls

My nightmares have a sudden tone its dangerous to be left alone
I wander blindly through my fears its strange and dark and youre not there
Cause youre gone, youre goneHeartbreak washes over me like moonlight soft I cannot see Im angry I recall your face now theres nothing in its place
Cause youre gone, youre gone(All thats left is) Teardrops on my pillow
Teardrops on my pillow
(All thats left is) Teardrops on my pillow
Teardrops on my pillowI send your body up in flames the ash collected for your grave
Well smudge my heart well smudge my mind
And settle somewhere deep inside
Ill cast your memory out to sea the tide will bring it back to meCause youre gone, youre gone, youre gone, youre gone
(All thats left is) Teardrops on my pillow
Teardrops on my pillow
(All thats left is) Teardrops on my pillow
Teardrops on my pillow
