Who You Are (feat. Prie)

Blackbear

Blackbear: (Verse 1)
We kept each other close,
but cautiously.
A ring without a stone,
a novelty.
We left it to be told
in photography.
Emotions that we showed,
so modestly.Blackbear: (CHORUS)
So I keep down below, who you are, who you are to me.
You're still my favorite thing in the world.
So I keep down below, who you are, who you are to me.
You're still my favorite thing in the world.Blackbear: (Verse 2)
We left it in the cold,
and watched it freeze.
A sea-sick undertone,
comes over me.
We left our love to soak in quandary.
So tell me, how do I love you girl?
One day you do, one day you don't, so thoughtlessly.Blackbear: (CHORUS)
So I keep down below who you are, who you are to me.
You're still my favorite thing in the world.
I'll just keep down below who you are, who you are to me.
You're still my favorite thing in the world.Prie: (Verse)
Late nights be the mission, got me reminiscent, all the times we kissin'. way.
Love got me still trippin' baby girl I'm slippin' I aint got no time to stay.
But I could feel the distance, baby girl listen we aint got no time to play.
I could see our love dyin', girl I aint lyin', listen to what I say.
But I'm tryin' to work it out girl, hope it work out girl, but you aint tryin' to stay.
Sh*t we got more to do, but this party right here seems more to you.
You get f*cked up on these late nights, still at the club 'til it close at 2.
Uh, two shots with your girlfriends, you heart broken, say you pregnant, and the world end.
Damn, and now you really cant trust men, you take advice when you out with your girlfriends. Prie.Blackbear: (CHORUS)
Keep down below who you are, who you are to me.
You're still my favorite thing in the world.
I'll just keep down below who you are, who you are to me.
You're still my favorite thing in the world.
