Hold Back The Day

DevilDriver

Dig deep dig in deeper you go where only fools fear to tread
You'll find devices to kill your master why not kill your maker instead
Leave it to the ones that own you leave it to those ones to Disown you put faith & trust in the dusk Do what you must do[Bridge]
I'm getting edgy for those departed left all alone left still forgotten![Chorus]
Miles to go and sky's to fly
Hold back the day
Miles to go and sky's to fly it's darkest before the DawnClaw hard now from your casket
Six feet and getting deeper should the top,
Soil feel Heavy it must be getting weaker Towers people build,
Up in life become frail and fall to the ground
Fuck them there opinion Deceiving the Honest Man![Bridge]ALways ,always ,darkest before the dawn[Chorus]
