

Dawn of a New Day

In Flames

The thoughts of yesterday forgotten
I like the way this new skin feels
Bring me splinters of tomorrow
Collect the parts where I win Against the grain, against the odds
I'll rise and I won't trip again
The dawn of a new day
Never looked as good as this Concrete breath and dust filled tears
A one way ride to inner peace
I never thought I'd join the others
Those who use the dice to solve Against the grain, against the odds
I'll rise and I won't trip again
Against the grain, against the odds
I'll rise and I won't trip again
Dawn of a new day
Never looked as good as this Against the grain, against the odds
I'll rise and I won't trip again
Against the grain, against the odds
I'll rise, I'll rise, I'll rise Against the grain, against the odds
Against the grain, against the odds
I'll rise and I won't trip again
Against the grain, against the odds
Against the grain, against the odds
Against the grain, against the odds
