Maybe I'm Not the Man

Marcell & the Truth

Baby today my heart is heavy dont know what's goin on cuz I thought that things were better I swore that we moved on, and It seems the more I give the more you simply take and this world that you created is leading to heartache; and if you wont let us disagree that you be you and me be me then maybe I'm not the man maybe I'm not the man. And if you cant appreciate the life we live and we give it all up to impress your friends then maybe I'm not the man then maybe I'm not the man and maybe we should move on... (on)... Move on ....(on).... maybe we should move on... (on).. just move on... on.. maybe we should move on..(on)... say move on.. (on).. Ohh move on... (on)... move on..(on).. Repeat on 15 times. Now at first it seemed cool cuz all I saw was cocoa brown but overtime your attitude seem to bring both of us down so I love being your man but I can never be your god and I apologize for every time I let you think I was and if you wont let us disagree that you be you and me be me then maybe I'm not the man maybe I'm not the man. And if you cant appreciate the life we live and we give it all up to impress your friends then maybe I'm not the man then maybe I'm not the man and we should move on..(on)... Move on ..(on).. maybe we should move on.. (on).. just move on..baby it's best to just move on..(on) move on. Maybe we should move on..(on)..move on..ain't no workin out let's move on..(on).just move on..(on)..move on.. try to stay happy.
