Nothing

John Newman

[Verse:]
I came here tonight, I know I've been reborn
Give you one last chance before I move on
I can't stop remembering, it's only tearing me apart
I'm suffering, I'm struggling to get this all out of my heart[Chorus:]
Well it's nothing I can't do for you
Nothing, that's good to know
I've never learned from my mistakes
It's all my fault, you're hard to break
Nothing I can't do for you
It's good to know[Verse:]
However hard you may cry
I won't give you up, you won't know why
You're never in my words, you never stop to dance
You never ask yourself what they're for
I'm suffering, I'm struggling to get this all out of my heart[Chorus:]
Well it's nothing I can't do for you
Nothing, that's good to know
I've never learned from my mistakes
It's all my fault, you're hard to break
Nothing I can't do for you
It's good to know[Bridge:]
I've been tryin to get you what you want
Been through everything you want
Now that's never gonna leave, it's never gonna leave now[Chorus:]
Nothing I can't do for you
Nothing, that's good to know
I've never learned from my mistakes
It's all my fault, you're hard to break
Nothing I can't do for you
It's good to knowAll is nothing no, aha alright
All is nothing no, aha alright
I've never learned from my mistakes
It's all my fault, you're hard to break
