

Run for the Hills

Spills and Thrills

(Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo
Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo)

Take a good look around

Everything's changing

Everyone's blaming

We're losing our way

Is it too late now?

What are you thinking?

Is this boat sinking?

I wish we could stay

Well, baby, can't you see the tide is rising?

A hard rain is coming down

Everyone I know is spinning wheels

And even when the multitudes, they gather

I won't be around

I'm gonna grab the one I love

I'm gonna grab the one I love and run for the hills

(Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo

Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo)

who can we trust?

Who can we turn to?

Yeah, they tell us to make do

And they lash with their tongues

Well, pull up a chair

For those who are able

At the rich man's table

While we live off their crumbs

Well, baby, can't you see the tide is rising?

A hard rain is coming down

And everyone I know is spinning wheels

And even when the multitudes, they gather

I won't be around

I'm gonna grab the one I love (grab the one I love)

I'm gonna grab the one I love and run for the hills

(Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo

Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo

Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo

Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo)

40 days and nights
It's gonna be a cold one
The fire and brimstone
Well, it won't keep us warm
And baby, can't you see the tide is rising?
A hard rain is coming down
Everyone I know is spinning wheels
And even when the multitudes, they gather
I won't be around
I'm gonna grab the one I love
I'm gonna grab the one I love and run for the hills
(Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo) Run for the hills
(Doo, doo doo, doo, doo, doo doo, doo) Ooo
