

Take That Away

Dot Dot Dot

I walk into an empty home
Your picture by the telephone
You were happy then
(I can't make this go away)
There's nothing left that you should know
I wake up in this bed alone
It's been too long
(I can't make this go away)
I'm just so far away from you
It's hard to see from a different view
Are you happy now?
(I can't make this go away)

I thought I'd let you know, I'll never let you go
And you can't
Take that away
I've already let you down, I'm sorry to say this now
But you can't
Take that away
You can't take that away
You can't take that away from me

Seven numbers on my mind
I wonder if she'll give me time to sing this song
(I can't make this go away)
I sit her writing lines
It's hard to rhyme this a thousand times
I was wrong
(I can't make this go away)
Makes no difference what you do
I'd leave it all just to be with you
I hate this song
(I can't make this go away)

I can't wait for the world
You can't wait for the day
That I come back and tell you I'm sorry
I take back what I said
All my words were misread

All I have is the end to remind me of you
And I thought Iâ€™d let you knowâ€™

I thought Iâ€™d let you know, Iâ€™ll never let you go
And you canâ€™tâ€™

Take that away

Iâ€™ve already let you down, Iâ€™m sorry to say this now

But you canâ€™tâ€™

Take that away

You canâ€™t take that away

You canâ€™t take that away from me
