Sun Lite, Moon Lite

Country Comfort

"Sun Lite, Moon Lite" Lyrics
Sunlight, moonlight
On a misty moringing
There are two in love
Together, for all time.
Twince the price,
Sends you a warning
That everyday is changing
Never to be the same.
Let is be like a snow white mooon on clear blue water.
What I've left I had to pay,
So why should i even bother?
I'ved lived my life on a silver platter,
And everyday there is less,
I wonder what be left after.
Let is be like a snow white mooon on clear blue water.
What I've left I had to pay,
So why should i even bother?
I'ved lived my life on a silver platter,
And everyday there is less,
I wonder what be left after.
Sunlight, moonlight
On a misty morningSunlight, moonlight
On a misty morningSunlight, moonlight
On a misty morning
