

To Die For

Katie Price

Get up its a minute to midnight
And we've got, the whole world coming after us
So we're running and running, Oh, and your eyes are the colour of wanting
And my heart is a runaway
And our hands seducing them to coincide
And there's something about you
And there's something that you see
We both lay, here broken
Cause we both know that this can't be
And it cuts like a gun
The poison in battle
Sinking straight to the blood
And it awakens your dreams
And kills all the demons
that you thought wouldn't leave
Cause this is love to die from
And to die for
Could this be, oh dare I say it
Oh this could be,
This could be love I've been waiting for
This could be love I've been asking for
From the stars to the gravel
That we used to light up shadows
From the slits it was finger
Pricking once in my fingertips

Passion for glory
Impossible in this story
And there's something about you
And there's something that you see
We both lay, here broken
Cause we both know that this can't be
And it cuts like a gun
The poison in battle
Sinking straight to the blood
And it awakens your dreams
And kills all the demons
that you thought wouldn't leave

Cause this is love to die from
And to die for
So if the world comes tumbling in
I will be there with you
And if the devil comes to town
I'll be there to protect you
And it cuts like a gun
The poison in battle
Sinking straight to the blood
And it awakens your dreams
And kills all the demons
that you thought wouldn't leave
Cause this is love to die from
And to die for
I'd die for, you.
