

Wrapped in Violence

Walls of Jericho

There are no words that can soothe
Console or uplift
This is going to burn like a knife in the chest
Say goodbye lost hopes, false dreams
This nightmare will try and take everything World gone cold
New values born
In the face of death we carry on
Swallow pain let hate dissolve
World gone cold
New values born Where is the Love?
It's in the face young
The spitting image of us
Where is the justice?
It's in facing the fear as we overcome
You've come to far to turn back now
Breakthrough end of all self doubt
I am the universe wrapped within
Life ends as it begins World gone cold
New values born
In the face of death we carry on
Swallow pain let hate dissolve
World gone cold
New values born Where is the Love? Love!
It's in the face young
The spitting image of us
Where is the justice? Justice!
It's in facing the fear as we overcome
I'm overcoming all this violence
I am the universe wrapped within
Life it ends as it begins
Violent
It begins again
