Look at Me

Sugababes

I know I'm still young with your life experience
But I gotta learn from my mistakes, not yours
Let me fly to my own fate with a little please
Wrap me up and guard no more and I'll never learnLook at me
I'm still your little girl
Look at me
The center of your worldYou know you are my friend but you got to understand
That if you stop me, you'll only end up alone
Let me use what you gave me always listening to me
And put to use what I have learnt so I can't returnLook at me
I'm still your little girl
I'm still your little girlLook at me
The center of your world
I'm still your little girlYou know just what it meant to me
The way you have protected me
But now it's time for me to leave
To find my own destiny, heyI'll always belong to you
You taught me how to find my way through
To keep my feelings straight and true
Most of what I am, I owe it all to youLook at me
I'm still your little girl
I'm still your little girlLook at me
The center of your world
I'm still your little girlLook at me
I'm still your little girl
I'm still your little girlLook at me
The center of your world
Look at me
I'm still your little girlLook at me
I'm still your little girl
I'm still your little girlLook at me
The center of your world
I'm still your little girlLook at me
I'm still your little girl
