Wrens

spare me those failed cars that sound like the pavement they rode in on don't pretend to innovate by copying what's new to a "T" just get out of my way Alright, I'll just sqwawk away don't / label as breaker grounds some sheep just different by barely inches oh yeah and / don't judge me by standards now in place to make the current seem cool the emperor looks good today alright alright alright i'll dress the same i'm sick and done with it please: i wanna come home today i wanna do things my way i don't wanna be the same looking out my window on another summer day i missed out on all towards a future building won't ever come ever will let me out to play
