Love and Hate

Blitzen Trapper

When you left me
You left me on the way back down
Far afield and casting far away back home
I was wounded
A cripple cast upon the streams
Pushed by currents crossing thru my deepest dreams
And if I'm asking myself why
She would leave me here to die
Why love and hate cohabitate in a lovers lonely eyeDon't ask why, oh baby don't ask why oh noWhen you loved me
You're love was like a winding road
--- leading brightly 'til the mountains edge
I was spellbound
Seeking ---- for a sign
Silently suspended by ---
And if I'm asking myself why
You would leave me here to die
Why love and hate cohabitate in a lovers lonely eyeDon't ask why, oh baby don't ask why oh ohWhen you left me
I wandered down thru dusty towns
Witness to the wars that raged within mans minds
I was thirsty
A refugee upon the road
Walking thru the ruins of this kingdom come
And if I'm asking myself why
Would you leave me here to die
Why love and hate cohabitate in a lovers lonely eyeDon't ask why, oh baby don't ask why oh oh
