ophidian

Ophidian

slither inside
can't go where I hide
so delicate and weak
you dare not collide
the truth in me
too dark to see so bitter the taste
now the poison runs freeon the dream that you once rode now your visions all corrode you're the one that sent me would I betray?
when all hope is gone and the damage done I'm still alive
the addiction's strong
you can't erase me
won't go awayof hatred and scorn of the heart that's been torn from a darkened womb
in your dreams I was born
the first and the last
out of the past
one final solution
now its coming down fast
