Ophidian

slither inside
can't go where I hide
so delicate and weak
you dare not collide
    the truth in me
    too dark to see
    so bitter the taste
now the poison runs free on the dream that you once rode now your visions all corrode you're the one that sent me would I betray?
when all hope is gone and the damage done I'm still alive
    the addiction's strong
    you can't erase me
won't go away of hatred and scorn of the heart that's been torn from a darkened womb
    in your dreams I was born
    the first and the last
        out of the past
        one final solution
    now its coming down fast
