Best Man

The Casket Lottery

I'm no bad man
God's true angels love me
And I'm a Best Man
So Matt and Jenny love me, too.
And I'm a sad man
I hope some things never change at all.
And he's a dead man if he ever hurts her.
I'm just kidding you. I'll drive a thousand miles so I can witness you.
If no one else makes the trail, I'll sing the wedding song all by myself.
I'll make time to play this game
But if you want my blessing, I abstain
If I'm gonna drive for you this far
I'm gonna drive you this hard
And I will wrap this veil around her head
You'll swear yourselves until your dead
And I'll kneel beside,
Laughing,
I'll tell myself I'll never
