

Revenge On Society

Blood for Blood

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

The crime, birth, my motive's clear
My final objective is to destroy and conquer all that I fear
The fear's in me instilled through the years
That's causing growing pains I think I can't get it out I get irritate so full of hate
The truth behind the madness I faced as of late
I get irrational but not emotional
Show no emotion will teach them to fear and respect This world is going straight to hell fast
It's broke my heart and soul like shattered glass
It's very happiness feeds my hate
It's very existence will open the gates of rage I'm filled with distress, I want to destroy
Everything that's ever filled me with rage
I'm filled with distress, I want to destroy
Everything you've ever known and loved I seek revenge on society
To destroy all you've ever known
I want revenge on your world
For my crime of being born This fucking life and world owe me
A lifetime of heartache and pain while you've thrived
And you don't fucking know me
I'll do all that I can to rip your world apart
And I, I, I, will prove why it was wrong for me to ever be
And I, I, I, I will unleash my vengeance upon thee I seek revenge on your society
To destroy all you've ever loved
I seek revenge on this world
For my crime of being born
For the crime of being born I seek revenge on your society
For the crime of being born
I seek revenge on your society
For the crime of being born
I seek revenge on your society
For the crime of being born
