Good Mornin'

You Am I

If you tuned in correctly this morning
Kissed his cheek, get your tea and your toast in
Got the greatest of the latest Top Thirty
To clear your mind of all things unfaithful or dirtyWhat do you like to hear with your soldiers?
The sponsor needs to know what you told us
Got a chorus written for us straight from the file
Just check your brain into the AM dialWaking up is easy when you've got a voice you know
Rattling up the ratings on the breakfast show
Waking up is easy when you've got a throat you love
Telling you what's out thereIs anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?If you don't like the nest that you've made
We got a competition running you can leave today
Pack your bags, clean your ears of the city
We got a place where even your car looks prettyWaking up is easy when you got a host you know
Rattling up the ratings on the breakfast show
Waking up is easy when you got a throat you love
Telling you what's out thereIs anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?Good mornin' ladies, do you need a man?
Put your trust in our thirties and over plan
Trust meWaking up is easy when you've got a voice you know
Rattling up the ratings on the breakfast show
Waking up is easy when you've got a throat you love
Telling you what's out thereIs anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?Good mornin', good mornin', good mornin'
Good mornin', good mornin', good mornin'
Good mornin', good mornin', good mornin'
Good mornin', good mornin', good mornin'
