

Interplanetary

Hundreds

In the dark
Of the night
I see patterns
In the sky
Moon and Clouds
Passing by
Earth is spinning
Or am I?The wind is pale
You seem bold
Your laughter bursts
I will fall
What's in my head
I have told
Earth is spinning
I get hold
They wake up
Be aware
Their hands
Waiting for you
All you can do is keep calm
They wake up
You've been warned
Hold your breath
They can hear you
All you can do is keep calmThe seventh planet
Has come down
It's watching us
Leave the town
Who left the throne
Lost dignity?
We'll find out
You and me
They wake up
Be aware
Their hands
Waiting for you
All you can do is keep calm
They wake up
You've been warned

Hold your breath
They can hear you
All you can do is keep calm And hope for forgiveness, no harm
All you can do is keep calm
(end)
