When I Look At You

Jane McDonald

When I look at you
you take me back a thousand years Somewhere in another time, another sphere
The memory's clear, even nowAnd when I look at you I see a place where I belong Somewhere in the past where I was young and strong A long, a long time ago ()I always knew that you Someday you'd find me Through the test of time you'd find me
Follow piece of mind and you'd be here with me I've waited all my life to say I love you every hour each day I've loved you Words, can never really say What's in my HeartNow, when I look at you I feel the power all around Looking back into your eyes
I know I've found a higher ground within my soul
And when I look at you A Highest mountain I can climb Knowing that i Love you till the end of time
You know your mine for ever more(Repeat)When I look at you Huummm
