

I Did it for You

David Cook

Today's not the same
As every day
It's far from ordinary
The pain I endure
You're my cure
But my mistakes have led me
Far away from you You turn away
From all those things
That I've been trying to say
And all those promises
I shouldn't have made
I did it for you Mile by mile
Feelings I just can't reconcile
My heart's on a string
These broken wings
You knew I'd be so fragile
Far away from you You turn away
From all those things
That I've been trying to say
And all those promises
I shouldn't have made
I did it for you I searched my soul
And all these feelings
That I can't control
And you're the one thing
That can make me whole
I did it for you Try to let you know
Try to let you know
Try to let you know Today is not the same
As every day
It's far from ordinary You turn away
From all those things
That I've been trying to say
And all those promises
I shouldn't have made
I did it for you Oh, I searched my soul
And all these feelings
That I can't control
And you're the one thing

That can make me whole
I did it for you
I did it for you
I did it for you You're the one thing that can make me whole,
I did it for you.
