

Let's Run Away

Paul Hyde

i wanna know you like more than a friend i wanna kiss you lying here in the sand ooh feels like paradise i wanna know you more than ever before i've had enough and i still want more ooh i'm drowning in your eyes as we sail into the distance ooh pull your body close to mine let's run away my love
follow the stars above
who knows just where they'll lead they shine for you and me celebrate celebrate
make a toast of love
cause we got it we got it
make a toast of us ooh
if there's so many other fish in the sea why am i so dizzy when you're looking at me ooh something's going right what's the use of keeping track of the time knowing i've already lost my mind
now i'm losing my resistance as you take me by the hand

live forever in this moment it don't matter where we're going ooh let's run away my love and after everyword is spoken we go deeper than the ocean

where they'll lead
