

Find Yourself

Jacco Gardner

Let it take you to somewhere safe
When the wind comes down
You wonder where you've been
See the world outside
On a sunny day
Fly above the clouds
Where the wind blows you away Find yourself now,
In the shade
When there's nothing
You won't know that it's too late
Find yourself now
From everyone
When the times comes
You can fight the cheating comes
Don't fight the feeling, just let it in
You know you need it like the sunlight on your skin
Try to let go, from the other side
Don't lock your doors, but only do it right
Find yourself now,
In the shade
When there's nothing
You won't know that it's too late
Find yourself now
From everyone
When the times comes
You can fight the cheating comes
