Hello

Austin Awake

(VERSE)

I said I need to get my mind right
I'm tryna' figure out my life
I told you I just got so much going on
Let's try it out when the times right
Who ever said you don't know what you got till it's gone
Shit they wasn't wrong
Cuz I've been going through so much pain
You can hear it in my voice in my songs
Baby you don't even miss what we had yeah I just want all that back baby
I don't even know where I'm at I really feel like I'm falling off track baby
Girl I used to hit you up but now I feel afraid
Tears running down my face you told me I would be okay
Better days I used to promise you that we would get away
Drunk texts you hate me that's some shit that you should never say
If you hear this hit me up hard times lift me up
I been feeling low be my alarm clock and get me up

(CHORUS)

Hello from the other side
I must've called a thousand times
To tell you I'm sorry for everything that I've done
But when I call you never seem to be home oh yeah
