

Gentle Change

Angra

I see the stars in your eyes
Portraying my face in the future
Nice is the weather outside
But I'll stay at home
Oh! Waiting for the rain...Memories of when we were young
Wishing so bad to be older
Now you may look to the past
The only way forward...Lighting up another cigarette
Playing cool while cracking up inside
Saying hi to people's like saying goodbye
Laughing, but wishing to cryGentle change of tides
Upcoming days
Oh, the spirits of a new horizon fall
Into old dreamsStanding here howling at the storm
Shouting how life could be perfect
Well, then the walls have to fall
To start it againGentle change of tides
Upcoming days
Oh, the spirits of a new horizon fall
Into old dreams..Lighting up another cigarette
Playing cool while cracking up inside
Saying hi to people's like saying goodbye
Laughing, but wishing to cryGentle change of tides
Upcoming days
Oh, the spirits of a new horizon fall
Into old dreamsFar away from sights
Oh, hidden in the haze
Oh, oh, spirits of a new horizon fall
Into old dreams
