Goin' Out

Sarah Harmer

When the days close on
The memories that you've acquired
And your body
Cannot hold your soul inspiredYou are here and not alone
Everybody has come home
There's a bed made up upstairs
If you get tiredAll the heaviness around you will get light
And your worry lifted up into the night
Left with nothing but pure love
Left with all you are made ofCan I stay around awhile
Is that all right?
Oh, lives don't end
Goin' out to be brought back again
Our lives don't end
